

Please use this form to record volunteer and staff completion of food safety training. Food safety training is a requirement for partnership with Food Bank of Central New York. At least one staff member or volunteer who has completed food safety training needs to be on site during food preparation and distribution. This will ensure that proper food safety knowledge and practices are being implemented throughout our network. Have this form available for site monitors or visits.

Food Safety Training	Partner Agency Number:
Volunteer / Staff Person	Signature	Date of Training